Hi everyone,

I am writing to provide you with time-sensitive updates and reminders regarding:

- Today's 5:30pm member call on LAUSD's potential parcel tax effort and charter inclusion, which we are hearing could come up for a vote as soon as this Thursday (email Jason Rudolph to RSVP);
- The LA Charter Community's Rock the Vote Event this Saturday with Nick Melvoin and Ana Ponce (click here to RSVP);
- And an introduction to our newest team member, Luis Figueroa who will be supporting member schools in BD 4.

RSVP for Today's Member Call at 5:30pm re LA Charter Parcel Tax Inclusion

If you haven't already, please RSVP to join today's member call at 5:30pm, which will include important updates on parcel tax advocacy. Email Jason Rudolph (jrudolph@ccsa.org) to RSVP and receive the dial-in number.

Thanks to our collective advocacy, the LA charter community, including charters within LAUSD boundaries authorized by LACOE and the SBE, are currently included in the draft parcel tax resolution, ballot language, and short ballot language that is being presented during the Committee of the Whole meeting today. If a parcel tax passes with proportional inclusion of charters, which we are still fighting for, your schools could benefit from as much as $500 to $1000 additional dollars per pupil annually.

We thank LAAC members Carrie Wagner (GALS), Johnathan Williams (The Accelerated Schools), John Vargas (ISANA), and Dustin Katch (Aspire) for representing the LA charter community at today's board meeting.

We are listening carefully during the presentation today for board member pushback again charter inclusion. We heard yesterday that the vote on the parcel tax may be moved to this Thursday, February 28 and will update you immediately if this is confirmed. We must continue to monitor whether board members have an appetite to amend language including charter schools in this resolution, but including charters in the initial draft is a major first step. We may need to mobilize quickly, and will alert you if we run into any issues over the coming hours and days.
